Academy

Good evening. I am Dr. Stephen Pidgeon and welcome Cepher Academy. Coming to you from an undisclosed location, deep in the bowels of Central Alaska, the home of snow and cold weather and the polar bear. Yes. And other bears and other animals, the moose, and so on and so forth. Yes, what a great place, a place a freedom, place of real Americanism really. Let's see how Rush Limbaugh used to put it "rugged individualism," that's it, and usually rugged individualism, not by choice, because that's the way it is.

Bless, not Curse

I want to welcome all of you. It's great for us to join together here on this Thursday evening. To come together for purposes of studying the Word. And we're going to be looking at a particular Word tonight, given the circumstances. I have to tell you that, my wife and I were listening to our robust circle of information during the day, and it was very overwhelming in its negativity. And so, as a kind of a general rule, I'm not a Pollyanna who pretends there's no negativity in the world. But on the other hand, we don't have to speak negativity into life, we can speak positivity into life. And not only that we can speak blessing into life, because guess what, we're blessed people. We're blessed people by the hand of YAHUAH. As for you says YAHUAH I have something different in mind for you. As for you. As for you, I have something different in mind for you. As for you, and that's us.

And so, I want to start with just a little bit of celebration, as you guys know, I was kind of under the weather with a true blessing from YAH, which was the Omicron variant. Why was this a true blessing? Well, because it was because guess what, now I've got my immunity going in spades. And in fact, there's been a couple of recent studies that have indicated that I have a 27% greater immunity than people who have got all four jabs or five, I don't have any idea what the count is. I guess you're supposed to get all kinds of jabs.

I've got to share with you just a little bit of story. Because this last week, we went from cold weather, which was pretty cold. I was an inordinately cold November. And I think a lot of that was caused by the fact that the atmosphere was inundated with ash from multiple volcanic eruptions, putting tons and tons and tons of weight into the atmosphere, and creating an inordinate blockage of the UV rays, at least in the Northern Hemisphere. And so that would have something to do with a little bit inordinate cold weather up here in the in the Far North. However, the cold weather kind of broke, you don't want to break around here. I mean, it's incredible. Because I don't know what it is about Alaskans, but if it's not below zero, then it's shorts and, and slippers, weather. And so, you see people I mean, we were watching a gal yesterday. She was taking out the trash, she had to load or two big trash cans in the back of her truck and drive all the way up her driveway, and to get them onto the road. And so, she's out there offloading her trash cans, and she is in slippers, no coat, no jacket, no gloves, no hat, whatever. I'm just offloading the garbage, just a typical day, it is a robust nineteen degrees.

And it's something like that today. But in the meantime, we've had all this snow. So, you know, we get you know Snowmageddon around here. Of course, you know, snow around here is like no excuse. Just because it snowed foot you don't have any excuse for being late to work. Everybody else got here. What's your problem? And of course, for a lot of longtime Alaskans when the snow hits, that's when they take the vehicle out of four-wheel drive and start partying on the road so they can slip and slide all over the highway and have fun driving. Which believe it or not, is recommended on the driving test up here. When you go to take the driving test, they tell you what you want to do, if you haven't been to Alaska before is when the first couple of snowfalls, you want to go to an empty parking lot and spin donuts for maybe an hour or so and get used to your car having absolutely zero traction.

So, you know what it's like, and you're driving down the highway. But in the meantime, so we're waiting around here, I don't know, we had ten inches of snow I think in the driveway, we're like, okay, where's our snowplow guy? Where's our snowplow guy. And finally, he shows up, I don't know, must have been about nine o'clock at night. And he had his kit. Now, this guy had the truck extraordinaire, right. He's got a blade that not only does the blade turn on the front, but the blade expands out this way, and it expands out this way. And then he's got this catcher on the back.

So, he comes in and backs right up to the garage there. And he drops his catcher down. And then he pulls all the snow, and he pulls the snow up there about thirty feet away from the garage. Then he can get the blade behind it and then push all the snow out of the way. So anyway, he came in and managed to scrape the driveway, he was done in a total of ten minutes, running around at high speeds in my driveway clearing out the driveway, so that we could get in and out. And so anyway, it was fun. And the place is now beautiful. Because we've got snow everywhere. The latest snow covers up the last mess. So, it looks pretty good.

And the roads that are so treacherous and dangerous, suddenly have this natural guardrail that's about two and a half feet tall, of ice berm, that if you hit it, supposedly it's going to keep you on the road. So anyway, these are glorious things that have happened here in Alaska, as we're enjoying the climate here. And of course, we see the beauty of the place is exquisite. But guess what? It's cold country. It's the Far North. And it's not for the timid.

So anyway, with that being said, tonight we're going to talk about this idea of Bless not Curse. I'm pretty excited about this, because YAHUAH kind of gave me this idea. I was sitting there thinking, what am I going to do? I don't know. I'm sitting here, dazed, and confused from coming down with herd immunity against all of the COVID garbage. And, you know, as is the case with our entire fellowship now immune, thank you. Thank you. 27 times greater immunity than anyone else in town. But I'm thinking, what am I going to talk about? What am I going to talk about? And then the President comes out with the remark, this is going to be a dark winter of death and hospitalization for the unvaccinated. Well, I love these opinions to get out there. A lot of people drop these opinions out there when they're completely uneducated opinions. Not saying the President is uneducated, but he does tend to demonstrate that from time to time. And he comes out and says, this is going to be a dark winter for the unvaccinated predicated upon which study. Inquiring minds want to know. We are going to look at some of those studies tonight. We are going to realize that he doesn't know what he's talking about, and that he's absolutely full of beans. And in the meantime, we have something happening now, let's just speak some blessing into the world. Because that's what we're going to do here tonight, we're going to speak some blessing to the world. We are going to pray a lot tonight too. But we're going to speak some blessing into the world, which this is YAH'S world, and he is he is the Creator, whose essence is bathed in love not hate.

He's the Creator of, he's not the father of death. He is the father of life. And he didn't create us just that we might die. He created us that we might have life and life more abundantly, and ultimately arranged for a method that would allow us to live life eternally. Not only to live life eternally, but to live life eternally, without the tragedies of sickness and, and some of these other things, but rather, but to live life, beautifully, wonderfully, and in awe, and in reverence and enjoy, and in peace and in happiness. This is with the world that He created for us. And we sit here and just wreck it. It's like we have a bad renter around your property, and all they do is wreck everything. Well, that's not good. And then we wonder why gee, we broke the toilet now, we'd wonder why the bathroom isn't working anymore.

Well, you know, you shouldn't have broken the toilet. It's the same thing with YAH, YAH gives us a life, and he gives us an instruction called the Torah. And it gives us an instruction and he says, follow this instruction plan, and you'll do well. You will rock the Kasbah. You'll do well, you'll have fun. You will enjoy life. There will be struggle of course, there's good times and there's bad times, there's good years, those lean years all of these things happen. But ultimately you will live a life of joy, ultimately, you will live a life of thanksgiving. You will live a life that is in reverence to he who made you. Remember that if YAH does not build the house, the workers labor in vain.

Now we have a country that is run by people who do not look to YAH for any reason whatsoever. Their power brokers based upon how much money they can wield, and how much money they can put in their pocket. And they run around worshipping money. And you know, the ironic thing is it's so funny when you talk about worshipping money particularly worshipping the dollar. Because now we have, I don't know, I think it's thirty-two billion, excuse me, thirty-two trillion in cash flow deficit. That's not total indebtedness of the nation. That's cash flow indebtedness. Thirty-two trillion dollars. Then we've got this cash flow that is like coming in, that's causing inordinate level of inflation.

Now, people may say, Well, there's no inflation. Of course, there is some I read a post today, somebody said, this dinner better be good. We spent $6.83 a pound on hamburger. I don't know about you. I remember when hamburger was .99 a pound. Those were the good old days because the hamburger wasn't a good back then. Actually, the hamburger was pretty good back then, too. The fact is that we have had the highest price increases since 1981. And for those of you who are old enough to remember that I know I am, 1981 was a rotten year, man. That was about a rotten year. Twenty-one percent inflation, twelve prime lending rate, people were spending seventeen on their mortgage interest. It was just a horrible time. And we have got this inflation back with us again. This inflation is projected to get markedly worse, not better. In the meantime, you got a bunch of people who just like can't loot the place fast enough. Well, let's just pull this out and pull that out. Let's end this and end that. Let's end farming. We will end these people, we will end this, we will stop this. And we got all kinds of plans that are all consistent with the cult of death. The cult of death, the covenant with death.

We have a group of people who have made a covenant with death. And somehow, they think this covenant of death is going to play out for them some way that means other than them dying. Look, if you make a covenant with death, the chances of you dying from that covenant are very, very high. They are going to be very, very high. But if you make a covenant with life, the chances of your living are not chances at all, but they are in fact guaranteed. Guaranteed in the hands of he who breathed life into your nostrils. So, we look at this now and we say okay, hey, listen, let's breathe blessing now. Over the community, let's breathe blessing over the community. Which is this, that for those of you who have become ill with this Omicron variant, give thanks unto YAHUAH because he is building your immune system.

Do not run into some kind of a panic attack, and swing down to the local death chapter that they call a hospital, you're going to be able to make it through this thing. And when you make it through this thing, you're going to have an immunity that's 27 times greater than those people who have been poked with a needle. Okay, it's just the way it is. So, give thanks for that particular event. Let's give thanks for the community that is forming here among Cepher readers, and among believers in general that you don't necessarily have to read them the Cepher, I'm sure there's people that are reading the Hallelujah Scriptures and other things, which is all fine and dandy. We're not here to dominate a market. We're here to extol the name of YAHUAH.

And so, what we see is this, the community is a community of life. That we are a community of life that is going to be a community also of light. A community of light that's going to point the light to those brothers and sisters now, who are going to be looking at the net result of their fatal error in following after the protocol of the sorcerers and the pharmacists, who have been worshipping the snake in front of us. Now, those people are going to be looking at a lot of stuff. So, this upcoming year, the name of the game for all of you, is called vitamin D, vitamin D. Now, natural vitamin D means what? Hanging out in Florida and lying on Riviera Beach, all during the month of January, February, and March for the entire time that the sun is in the sky.

Unfortunately, I was only able to do that when I was nineteen years old. And I'm not going to be able to do it this year because I'm up in Alaska where we see the sun every now and then. But we do know this, because there is a natural depletion of vitamin D during the winter, you must increase your vitamin D dramatically. Don't forget to do that vitamin D, it is a very big deal, and you want to maintain your vitamin D now. For the next couple of years at very, very high levels if you can, this is not medical advice. This is just me saying hey, look at the old vitamin D and hang out on the beach, if you can do it. I know I'm going to be trying to suntan in forty degrees up here. And we'll see how that works. Right now, I'm working on my Alaska tan, which is as you know, as a kind of a translucent blue. If you look close enough, you'll see that.

Let's also talk about the blessing of music. You know, Frank Germanna put up an interesting post, Martin Luther said next to the Word of YAHUAH, music is the greatest blessing among mankind. And as a musician, I really agree with that. I really think that music is just an outstanding thing. Music in its purest sense, that is to say no words, no words. If music is harmonic in playing a major chord, it edifies YAHUAH, it edifies and glorifies YAHUAH. Consonant music glorifies YAHUAH.

Now, once you start adding some country western lyrics by getting your dog back and all that kind of thing. You may or may not be edifying. YAHUAH. By the time you get to metal, well, you know, he might have gotten off the tracks altogether. But the lyrics are something that is mankind doing. But when you're talking about music in general, this the natural music of it. Natural music is edifying and beautifying, and it brings life to the community. It brings memories to the community. It brings a color of life to the community. Now recently, I saw Abigail and her husband had released a chart with her playing autoharp. I'll be candid with you, I'm no respecter of the autoharp. But she did a beautiful job playing it, and a beautiful job singing it. and her husband laid down some killer guitar behind it. And these are wonderful things. These are wonderful and beautiful things. When you have the opportunity to celebrate live music, musicians playing music live, it's a very important thing. Because it is creating something right there that didn't exist yesterday, it didn't exist. Those sounds that come into creation today, they do exist. It's a new creation today that brings life with it. So, we know that music is part of the blessing, we're going to speak into the community. Health is part of the blessing we're going to speak into the community. Light is part of the blessing we're going to speak into the community.

And even though there are those people who are caught up in their sexual deviancy working for a group of bankers, who are intent upon giving reality to their satanic covenant with death, they're going to be getting the results of their satanic covenant of death, and we, on the other hand, are going to be speaking blessing into the lives of the lost. We are going to be speaking blessing into the lives of the lost. It is not up to us to make a determination, this person has lived life that in my opinion, was predicated on a series of bad decisions. They married the wrong person, that person got involved in a meth habit. And that is beneath dignity, and I don't deal with those kinds of people, so I'm not going to bless them. Well, that's incorrect. That's what we're going to be talking about tonight is to bless and to not curse. You know why we're going to bless and not curse, because we are blessed and not cursed. And it makes no difference what words come out of the mouths of those who follow the covenant of death. That's their problem. That's not our problem. We have a covenant of life. We have a covenant of life that was given to us face to face at Mount Horeb. When YAHUAH said, do these and live in them. We have a covenant of life that was expressed with bread and with a cup of wine, saying, this is my blood shed for you for the remission of sin. We have a covenant of life, a covenant of life eternal of blessing that begins from the tip of our toes to the top of our very head, our very last hair. It is a blessing that comes from the inside of the soul to the outside of the flesh, from the outside of the flesh to the inside of the soul. It comes from the very center of the mitochondria where the name of YAHUAH and is found in the 10-56-5. And it stems through all of our existence, all of our existence from the date of our birth to the date of our death. Forgiven in our iniquities under the blood of HA'MASHIACH. Because we are a blessed people. We are not a cursed people. We are a blessed people. We are a blessed people in the name of YAHUAH TSEVA'OTH because I am Yashar'el! I am Yashar'el!

Halleluyah. And so, because of that, hey, guess what? I've got a surplus. I've got a surplus. And my surplus allows me to do what? It allows me to share my screen.

So here we are Cepher Academy. Another production of Cepher Academy. Thank goodness, thank goodness that YAH has given us Cepher academy. That we've been blessed with the help whether it be Eileen DeStefano, Tina Agundez, Jonathan Netzloff, or Penny Castro. And some of the team that have been working, Lewis who has been working to help us develop our content, and who have come alongside us of all of these things. May they be blessed too. Prayer and blessing for them. So, before we start with our presentation, I want to go ahead and pray for you who are in the chat here tonight. Because I know there are many people who are also suffering now, who are suffering from omicron. Suffering from this, this thing, this plan, this plan of the wicked ones, to inflict harm upon the blessed. Their plan is not going to work because YAH is already converting it into something fantastic. Right in front of our very eyes. So let's pray.

Heavenly Father, we lift this time to you to get in great joy and exultation, because your name is present over this country because your name is now present over this earth, because your name is now upon the face of the earth, because all power in heaven and earth has been given unto YAHUSHA. Therefore, we are going forth, to bring forth the commands to do and to obey all that He has commanded, to repent, for the kingdom is near. This is the impetus of YAHUSHA. This is the impetus to bring a baptism forward, to bring the baptism and to celebrate and declare the name of YAH, as it might be heard throughout the land. And when people say to themselves, why is it that you inhabit a blessing in the face of this darkness and we are going to say, YAHUAH ELOHAI, because YAHUAH is my EL, I shall not fear, I shall not walk in darkness. I shall not tremble under the machinations of the wicked one, but I shall stand in his strong tower, I shall stand in his fortress, I shall stand into the shadow of his wings, I shall stand under the name of YAHUAH TSEVA'OTH, the King of All glory, the creator of heaven and earth. And he who rules the night and the day, including your dark machination, Satan, which are about to come to a screeching burning halt. Yeah, Halleluyah. Amein.

So, we pray for the brothers and sisters who suffer now Father, whether they suffer from this inordinate bioweapon that's been unleashed upon us by the forces of darkness, or they're suffering from something else, whether it be an economic meltdown, a family destruction, the loss of a marriage, the loss of a family member, the isolation from family members feel treatment, from their church. being pushed aside. being called names. being denigrated, being fired from their job. being pushed out of the military, whatever the circumstances are, Father, hear our prayers. we lift our petition to you to look at your sons and daughters. Look at your sons and daughters. and bless for your mercy upon us now, Father, and your abundance as you see fit for you are good and your mercy endures forever over all things. Over all things. We look you in these things in the blessing name of YAHUSHA Amein.

Cepher Academy, Bless, not Curse. So, we start with this passage right here from Romans 12:14:

“14. Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.”

Bless, not Curse

43 Ye have heard that it has been said,

You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. (Vayiqra (Leviticus) 19:18).

44 But I say unto you: Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; 45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he makes his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 46 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? Do not even the publicans the same? 47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? Do not even the publicans so? 48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

- Mattithyahu (Matthew) 5:43-48

Bless and Curse not. well, let's dig into this a little bit and see if Paul is inventing something. maybe Paul's inventing something, maybe Paul came and said, I've got an idea. I'm going to teach my own teaching here because I am Paul the Apostle. is that right? Well, I don't know. Let's see if there's something in the Gospel that maybe says something similar. Well, right here in Mattithyahu or the book of Matthew, the Besorah Mattithyahu, Chapter 5, which as we know, is the Sermon on the Mount, the Beatitudes, beginning in verse 43, You have heard it, it has been said:

MATTITHYAHU (Matthew) 5:43-44:

“43. You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy...”

Now, that's a direct quote, from Vayiqra, Leviticus 19:18. Now, this is interesting, because this is a Torah command. For those of you who say, well, I'm going to be the Torah terrorists, and I'm going to break out the Five Books of Mosheh, and I'm going to use them like five sharpened weapons as I smash you up alongside the head with your ignorance.

Well, here we see, once again, a Torah command. You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. Okay, Torah command, out of Leviticus. And YAHUSHA is going to directly contradict it. He's going to say, well, just hold on here a minute.

“44. But I say unto you: Love your enemies,..”

What?

“44. “bless them that curse you, and do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;”

Okay, now, wait a minute. Let's see here who he's talking to? Me. He's telling us who to pray for, right? We have to pray for those that curse us. We have to pray for those that hate us. We have to pray for those who spitefully use us. And we have to pray for those who persecute us.

I got to tell you, there's a couple of people who've got a couple of videos out there saying the Ceper sucks, we hate it. And somebody should kick Dr. Pigeon in the teeth, and blah, blah, and here we go. Right. And, of course, one of the criticisms is they don't like Acts 29. Of course, Acts 29 talks about Paul traveling to Britain. Well, I don't want to break the news to these folks. But since they have come out with these kinds of claims, we have since substantiated, the body of proof is unbelievable, about Paul's trip into Britain, and about Paul's trip into Spain.

And of course, the difficulty is that, well, he gave the druids a kiss of peace, therefore, he's somehow blessed the druids. Now, he didn't bless the Druids. He just gave him a kiss a piece, which means what? Don't kill me when I'm here. He just gave him a kiss of peace. But the fact of the matter is that people think they know who the Druids were predicated upon the writings of Romans, like Tacitus, and Julius Caesar and Cicero and so forth, who never set foot in Britain. Who's stories they told were secondhand hearsay, made up by people who were mad that they hadn't been able to conquer him the first time around.

So, when you talk about British history, particularly the first century history going up, but up until Gillnets in the seventh century, most people don't have the slightest idea what they're talking about. And then you can rest assured that they knew nothing about what the practice of Druidism really was. But you've got a very interesting history takes place there in the Torah, because we were kind of looking at this this afternoon. Here, you have Avraham, and Avraham has this dream. Avraham has this dream, and the dream is what? You are going to be a stranger in a strange land. Remember the dream when the pieces are cut apart in a torch walks between the pieces, and then he's told you're going to be a stranger in a strange land, you're going to go into captivity.

Now, you got to ask yourself the question here, Avraham was told to get out of your father's house, you know that idol worshipping place. and go someplace new. I'm going to make you the father of a great nation. And I'm going to bless you, and I'm going to do all this other stuff. Then he gets out there. He leaves with Sarah and out he goes. Then the next thing you know, he's having this dream, your descendants are all going to be slaves, and they're going to be captured in a place. Well, wait a minute. I thought you were going to make me great nation. I thought things were supposed to go groovy. I thought things because I believed in was accounted to me as righteousness, that good stuff was going to happen. What's this slavery stuff you're talking about? It's a big issue, right? Especially when you see what happens with Joseph and all the rest of that.

But keep this in mind, you have this idea of the tribes coming down, that when Ya'aqov have left the land of Canaan, and entered into the land of Mitsrayim, there were 70 family members that came with him, and not just the twelve sons, but the grandsons, the wives, etc. That came into Mitsrayim, the 70 or 72 whatever it was, it was in that range, but as they get in there, what do we find? We know that Judah, of course, was in total violation of Mosheh's Torah. He was in total violation of the wishes of his father and total violations of the wishes of his grandfather. Because the wish was what? That Yitschaq would marry someone of the same people of the house of Avraham. And Yitschaq did he married Rivka. When Yitschaq had two sons, Easu and Ya'aqov, both of those sons were told, do not marry Canaanite women. And Esau went out and married multiple Canaanite women.

Ya'aqov did not, Ya'aqov instead he goes up to visit the in-laws. Let's go visit the in-laws, where he marries Rachel and Leah. And of course, Raquel and Leah marrying a woman and her sister, violation of Mosheh's Torah, says specifically you can't do that, marry a woman and her sister, he did. And then he also, of course, had relations with his two concubines, to produce twelve sons. Well, one of those sons, Judah, Yahuda. Yehuda is told what? Don't marry a Canaanite woman. And what does he do? He marries a Canaanite woman. He marries a Canaanite woman, and he has three sons, my three sons, my three Canaanite sons. Then he tries to pick a Hebrew wife, Tamar for his Canaanite son.

And his Canaanite son was like, I'm not interested in some Hebrew wife, give me a good Canaanite woman. You know what he got into Jezebel. Because he denies Tamar boom, YAHUAH strikes him. You're gone. And the second son, well, okay, I will marry her. But I'm not going to have anything to do with her, Because I'm not producing any kids for my brother. I didn't even like him. He was a jerk. Next thing, you know, boom, he's gone. So, who's that leave? Son number three, who's like six? You know, and Tamar's like, twenty-one. Uh, well, can you wait around for him, I guess. And then when she waits around for him, guess what, he marries someone else. So, Tamar, herself seduces Judah.

Takes his cloak and takes a staff and takes this ring and gets pregnant with twins. Okay, so these twins, Zerach and Perez, these twins become the future. They become the future. Now you say to yourself, oh, come on, get out of here, Tamar's twins become the future? Look Perez is the line that is mentioned in Matthew one, from which the MASHIACH himself is strong. So, when you talk about a Pharisee, who was a Pharisee? MASHIACH was a Pharisee because he was directly of the house of Perez.

But what about the Zerachim, the house of Zerach? Who were they? What happened to them? Well, the house of Zerach didn't hang around to wait for Mosheh. Only one son did Zimri the rest of the tribes boogied, they left. I'm glad you guys are enjoying Egypt. We're a little bit too adventurous for that kind of thing. We're taking off early. We're taking off all the famines going. We're taking off while the times are good. We're taken off before we get to the Pharaoh that doesn't remember our name. And so, the sons of Zerach took off. Calco went to Athens, formed Athens, Greece, Darda went and formed the city of Troy, Ethan went and formed the city of Cadiz in Spain. These were the sons of Zerach, and the sons of Zerach did not hail by the names Zerach. They hailed by the grandson Galathis became known as the Gaul's, the Gaelic people. The Galatym, the Gaelic those of Galilee, the Gaul's.

And so here you had a group of people who left Egypt before Mosheh. They weren't there. They left; they were gone. They had established civilization in Spain. They had established a civilization in Western France; they had established a civilization in Southwestern Britain. They had established a civilization on the island of Ireland. This is what they had done. They had established these places, and they did so without the benefit of knowing Mosheh. So, they weren't present at Sinai when the Ten Devariym were given. They weren't present when Mosheh created Pentateuch. They weren't there. They were somewhere else. But what were they doing? They were practicing a priesthood. They were practicing a priesthood that predated the Aaronic priesthood.

Well, as far as a lot of people are concerned, there is no priesthood until you get to Aaron and Moses. Sorry, there's no priesthood. There's only Aaron and Moses. That's the priesthood, the Levitical priesthood; it didn't exist before. We created it. We created a whole cloth. Here's a little bit of a priesthood predicated upon the Book of Leviticus, and these are the rules for the priesthood. And that's the first time there was a priesthood. That's not true at all. There was a priesthood in the order of Melchizedek. Now, Malkiy Tsedeq, Malaki-

Tsadiyq. Which one is it? Well, we don't know. Because guess what? The Masorites, right, weren't alive back then. Even though they went ahead and inferred their own vowel inflection some 2000 years later, they didn't know at that time. So here you are. You've got this word. Melchizedek.

Now, if it's "Malak" messenger, Angel, right we translated as Angel, Malach, Malki-Zedek, messenger of righteousness, righteous messenger. Right. So, this righteous messenger that Avraham himself would meet at Shalam. Maliki said he would come and present the bread and wine; this is what he did. Well, the bread and wine was just one aspect of the covenant. And that is to say, the bread and wine were the markers of a covenant. But what about the priesthood? What about the priesthood? What did this person who was occupying that post of Maliki Sadiq? What kind of priest was he? What were the tenants of his priesthood? What did he do? What did he know? What did he teach? What were his practices? The only practice that we can see that we can ascertain of any significance whatsoever is the fact that there was a covenant expressed in bread and wine and that there was a tithe. Right, that there was a tithe of ten percent. This is what we see in this priesthood of Medicaid Siddique, but what else was present? What else was being taught? Well, whatever it was, that was the tradition of the priesthood, that were in the Gaelic people, that was their tradition.

So yes, it was not the priesthood of Aaron. It was not the Levitical priesthood; it was not Zadokite rituals, it was not the animal sacrifice, it was something else. Something else that is not clearly defined, something else that is not clearly known. But we do know this, that when Paul ran into them, and the Druids said, we are of your tribe and showed that in their practices, there was similarities between what the Druids were doing and what the Benjamites were doing. And what the other house of Israel was doing. And when he saw that, he gave them the kiss of peace. Now, this just outrageous people who think that the Druids were a bunch of tree-loving New Agers back in the time of Paul. Well, that's absurd. You don't know what you're talking about. And all you do is paint yourself as an ignorant person with hate kicking out of your nostrils. And so, there are people out there who decide, you know what I'm going to do, I'm going to make a video here in December that's going to denounce the Cephher. Well, good for you. Good for you. But guess what? We bless and not curse. We bless and not curse. And who do we bless? We bless those that curse us.

We are going to bless you that denounce us. We are going to bless those that hate us. Oh, yeah, the guys that want to call me this, that, and the other thing, and that my book is ugly, and on and on. Fine, you hate us. We're going to bless you. We're going to pray for those that despitefully use us. They want to just step on the back of your neck and elevate themselves; I'm going to lift myself up in the eyes of everybody. By stepping on the neck of those people around me, I'm going to expose so and so. I'm going to expose such and such for being a false prophet, so and so is the end anti-christ. Such and such gave a wrong doctrine.

I'm going to expose them step on the back of their neck and then exalt themselves, of lifting up as that person who stepped on the back of the neck of those people who were wrong. Instead of praying and blessing those who despitefully use you instead, you're going to behead them. And what about those who persecute you? Well, as persecution coming, oh, sure it is. How about concentration camps in New York? They got a bill pending that says if the governor is unelected. If the governor believes that you are un-jabbed and do not have a sufficient snake bite, I can put you in a concentration camp indefinitely. No charges. No crime. No, nothing. Except my fear and my authority. Because I am king.

Well, that's what you call persecution. And that's what they're doing in Australia, a fellow who calls himself a Christian. I'm a Christian. That's why I put people in concentration camps who haven't committed any crimes.

Because I'm a Christian. I've gone ahead and persecuting my fellow citizens because they have the audacity to attempt to live in freedom. Instead of submitting to the fearful boogeyman that I've submitted to. Just remember, I'm in control, I'm in control.

Bless, not Curse

43 Ye have heard that it has been said,

You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. (Vayiqra (Leviticus) 19:18).

44 But I say unto you: Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; 45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he makes his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 46 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? Do not even the publicans the same? 47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? Do not even the publicans so? 48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

- Mattithyahu (Matthew) 5:43-48

MATTITHYAHU (Matthew) 5:45-44:

“45. That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven:..”

Now listen to this,

“45. For he makes the sun to rise on the evil and the good and sends rain on the just and the unjust.”

Now, this is a very interesting passage because we know it's true. We ask ourselves, why did the wicked prosper? Because YAH sends rain on the just and the unjust because he causes the sun to rise on the wicked and the righteous. The sun rises, and the rain comes on the just and the unjust. Circumstances happen because we're not called into a static existence of automatons. Hey, robot. I created you worship me—end of story. I'm not; we're not going to talk about you having any volition. We're not going to talk about you making an election to love your heavenly Father. Oh, no, this is going to be automatic. We're just going to tell you to do it. That's how we do it here at the AI factory. We tell you what to do. You don't elect anything.

But YAH doesn't; he says, okay, I'm going to cause the sun to rise on the evil and the good. And I'm going to cause a rain on the just and the unjust.

“46. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye?..”

Well, hey, we're preaching to the choir. We preach to the choir. Hey, you agree? I agree. How about you, I agree. Okay, well, let's get together next week and agree.

“46. Do not even the publicans do the same?

47. And if ye salute your brethren only, what do we more than others? Do not even the publicans so?”

48. Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.”

And bless the evil and the good and bless the just and the unjust as YAH has seen fit for the sun to rise on them and for the rain to come on them. So, our blessing must also come on them.

Bless, not Curse

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of Elohiym, that ye pre-sent your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto Elohiym, which is your reasonable service. 2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of Elohiym 3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as Elohiym has dealt to every man the measure of faith . 4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

- Romayim (Romans) 12:1 -4

Now, Paul is going to give us a whole discussion on this, which I think is worthy of really going down this path here a bit. Which this is,

ROMAYIM (Romans) 12:1:

“1. I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of ELOHIYM, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice,”

Now, this is such a big deal if people want to talk down about Paul. But look, when you start talking about the sacrifices that are described in the Old Testament, whether you're talking about the Zabach, or you're talking about the old law, or you're talking about some of these set of sacrifices. Which were told over and over again, men slaughtering a cow, goat, lamb, or slaughtering a bird. Here, Paul is telling us no, that stuff of slaughtering, that stuff is over. Make your body a living sacrifice. Make yourself the living sacrifice. But what the heck are you talking about? Do I have to cut my guts open on the altar? No. What you're talking about is, you're going to be the sacrifice that is that's going to appear before YAH. Now when you think about that, all that goes into that. Now, let me give an example of what I mean.

You cannot present a blemished sacrifice before YAHUAH. And expect YAH to accept it. You're a sacrifice before YAH has to be an unblemished sacrifice. And that means for you to present your body as a living sacrifice before YAH that you have to bring your body into a condition of an unblemished sacrifice. Don't taint your sacrifice of who you are, with, I also gave this to other people, I also presented this as a down payment for a car. I also did this; I also did that. No, no, no. Your sacrifice to die has to be in an unblemished form. And that means an unblemished form which is achieved through what? Repentance, it's achieved through seeking after righteousness. It's achieved after receiving forgiveness and mercy. This puts you in a position where now where your body can be presented as an unblemished offering before YAH, an unblemished offering before YAH.

Holy See,

“1. present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy...”

In other words, Peter says, be holy, for I am perfect. MASHIACH said, be perfect. As your heavenly Father is perfect, be perfect. Peter says Be holy, for I am holy, that you seek holiness. And then by seeking holiness, by seeking righteousness, by blessing others in even in your poverty. by blessing others, you become holy and acceptable into Elohim.

Which is not something spectacular. You are not going to walk away with the new brownie point or some kind of a merit badge. No, this is your reasonable service. This is the kind of bare minimum. It's the bare minimum to present your bodies as a living sacrifice in a holy condition. Holy and acceptable to YAHUAH.

2. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of ELOHIYM....”

So, you're not going to sit here and say, well, I know how to make myself holy in front of YAH. That's for all of my friends to like what it is that I'm doing. No, your friends don't know anything. YAH knows stuff. Your friends don't. You can't be conformed to what they expect of you. While they're here's how we do it here, son. Everybody here wears a cowboy hat. And then we wear boots. And then we've got a belt with a nice buckle. That's how we are acceptable to YAHUAH. Don't be conformed to that world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. In other words, you can't sit back here and say I've got it. I've now understood the equation.

The fact that you understand the equation is the threshold of knowledge. It is not knowledge. It's just the doorway; it's just the threshold. You are going to be renewing your mind continually, that you can prove what is the good and acceptable, and the perfect will of ELOHIYM. What is the perfect will of ELOHIYM in our lives? Well, one thing that is given to us as the perfect will of ELOHIYM is to bless and to not curse.

“3. For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but the think soberly,..”

In other words, don't get carried away with about how groovy you are, oh, I am the best, or as Muhammad Ali would say, I am the greatest, I am the greatest. Even that is transit. You might have been the greatest for a couple of fights, but he got a little older. He wasn't the greatest.

“3. According as ELOHIYM has dealt to every man the measure of faith...”

Think soberly about who you are predicated upon the amount of faith that Elohim is giving you. Now some people say, well, I want to strengthen my faith. You need to be careful about asking that question. Because YAH will put you through a test, he will test your faith; he will put you through a test to strengthen your faith. When you say I'm going to strengthen my faith, that could mean a big challenge in front of you, in front of your life.

Let YAH give you the measure of faith that he intends you to have and be thankful for it.

“4. For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office.”

Bless, not Curse

*5 So we, being many, are one body in Mashiach, and everyone members one of another. 6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; 7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teaches, on teaching; 8 Or he that exhorts, on exhortation: he that gives, let him do it with simplicity; he that rules, with diligence; he that shows mercy, with cheerfulness. 9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil ; cleave to that which is good .

- Romayim (Romans) 12:5-9

ROMAYIM (Romans) 12:5-9:

“5. So, we being many are one body in MASHIACH, and every one members of one another...”

So, in other words, we're all the body in MASHIACH, but each part of the body is a cell in the body. Our function is to do what, to oxygenate the blood, our function is to regenerate flesh, our function is to cause the heart to beat, our function is to make sure that the brain is fed, our function is this.

“6. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us...”

We're different. This is one of the remarkable aspects of the whole faith. That in the Gospel given to us in Isaiah 61. The gospel is given to us individually. You see, it is not given to us as a group; it's not all of those of you who are born in Saudi Arabia; now you now have the gospel. No, that isn't the way it is at all. It's given to you who was blind. It's given to you who was locked up in prison. It's given to you who was enslaved. It's given to you who sat in darkness. It's given to you who were lost. It's given to you who did not know; it's given you who are blind; it's given to you that had no chance and no clue.

And yet the gospel was given to you individually, poured into you in good measure according to the grace that is given to us, differing one to another.

- “6. Whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the portion of faith;
- 7. Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teaches, on teaching;
- 8. Or he that exhorts, on exhortation, he that gives, let him do it with simplicity; he that rules, with diligence;

Don't be ruling casually or in arrogance but be ruling with diligence.

“8. He that shows mercy, with cheerfulness.”

Don't be coming down with your altruistic; I'm going to give you my mercy. Because I am so great. And then lord it over those to whom you are merciful. Do it with cheerfulness.

“9. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.”

I love that teaching from Paul. Because sometimes the simple word is best. We used to have a saying in music. What's the key to playing good music? Well, play the right notes. And don't play the wrong notes; that's the simple formula. If you want good music, play the right notes, and don't play the wrong notes.

Bless, not Curse

*10 Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another; 11 Not slothful in business; fervent in theuach; serving Yahuah; 12 Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; 13 Distributing to the necessity of thəodeshiym; given to hospitality. 14 Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not. 15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep. 16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. 1 Recompense to no man evil for evil Provide things honest in the sight of all men. 18 If it be possible, as much as lies in you, live peaceably with all men

- Romayim (Romans) 12:10-18

Now he continues,

ROMAYIYM (Romans) 12:10:

“10. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another;”

Now, you often see this. This is one of the great things, but really about Americans. And you can see it all over the world. And I mean, I have just need share a story with you. My wife and I were walking on the streets of Dublin. And well, it was maybe eleven o'clock in the morning. And we are walking along. And this woman who lived in a semi, she was up on the second floor there. She had a collection of CDs. You buy the tower of CDs, the blank ones. They come in a in the packet.

Anyway, she had this collection of CDs, and she had them sitting up on a windowsill, and she made a wrong move. And that tower came off and splat right down on the sidewalk. There's roughly eighty CDs splattered on the sidewalk. So, Stephanie and I stopped, and we started pulling them back together and sticking them back on the thing. She came downstairs, and she says, you guys are Americans, aren't you? I said, yes, we are. How do you know this? She said because no one here would do this. No one here in this town would do this. I spilled my CDs on my own, you know.

I used to see this a lot also in Jerusalem. You can see from a distance the people that live there, here's somebody struggling over the cobblestones in a wheelchair, people are like, we're not making room for you, get out of the way. I'm not holding the door for you to hit the road. You know, the story that you hear in the Gospels about the guy sitting there at the pool of Shalom. And every time he was time for him to get in the pool, everybody cut in front of him. Well, that's very common to this day; you will see that very same ethic on the streets of Jerusalem, right now in Israel.

Then you see the Americans. The Americans will stop the push the wheelchair; they'll open the door, they'll hold the door. That day, you know, be there courteous to let this person go first, for heaven's sakes because we honor one another, preferring one another.

ROMAYIYM (Romans) 12:11:

“11. Not slothful in business;..”

No, no, no, don't get out there and take advantage of the system by laying around saying we're all going to get paid the same. So, I'm just going to sit here and smoke cigarettes. No, not slothful in business.

“11. fervent in the ruach; serving YAHUAH.”

You're not just serving your friends. You're not just serving your job. You're working unto YAHUAH; it's you in front of YAH. Not you in front of your employer, not you in front of HR, not you competing with the other guys on the on the shift. You're working for YAHUAH; you're working in front of YAHUAH.

“12. Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;..”

Continuing instant in prayer. When someone says, pray, pray. You don't have to pray low. Can you pray for me? Yes, I can pray for you. Let me pray for you. I'm praying for you. I'm lifting your petition to YAH right now in the name of YAHUSHA, that he hears it. He hears your prayer, and it rises as an incense and sits in heaven as the sweet-smelling incense before YAH. Raise it instant in prayer.

“13. Distributing to the necessity of the qodeshiym; given to hospitality...”

Don't be stingy. Don't be a stingy jerk. Give in hospitality, right? You know when you're called, I'm not telling you to give money to every meth head on every corner. I didn't say do that. You know, you can give something to a meth head. You can give them advice as to how to leave meth. You can give them advice; you can give them a helping hand to say you need to go to the shelter. You need to hear the word of YAHUAH. You need to know that your life is not the wasted mess you think it is. That there is someone that knit you together in your mother's womb that knows your name, and heaven is waiting on you. Why are you sitting here smoking meth?

“14. Bless them which persecute you:..”

Well, that's what we're going to do today.

“14. Bless, and curse not.

15. Rejoice with them that rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16. Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17. Recompense to know man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18. If it be possible, as much as lies in you, live peaceably with all men.

Bless, not Curse

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says Yahuah. 20 Therefore, if your enemy hungers, feed him; if he thirsts, give him drink: for in so doing, you shall heap coals of fire on his head. 21 Be not overcome of evil but overcome evil with good.

- Romayim (Romans) 12:19-21

Provide things honest in the sight of all men. That's up to you, not up to someone else. That's up to you.

ROMAYIYM (Romans) 12:19-21:

“19. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says YAHUAH.

20. Therefore, if your enemy hungers, feed him; if he thirsts, give him drink; for in so doing, you shall heap coals of fire on his head.

21. Be not overcome of evil but overcome evil with good.”

There's so much evil in the world today. There is so much evil in the world today, nothing but evil all around us. Evil people, evil, wicked people doing evil and wicked things who are under the impression that their god mammon is going to deliver them. Their god Ba'al is going to deliver them. Their god Molech is going to deliver them. If they just continue to pursue abortion, somehow, their life is going to be nicer. If they continue to vote for a continuous stream of people who are pro-abortion, somehow, this country is going to be better. That if we continue to elevate the rainbow diversity flag over the nation, that somehow our culture is going to heal. Look to that flag and see if that flag will answer your prayer. Look to that politician that you voted in because he or she would support partial-birth abortion in the third term. See if they'll answer your prayer. See if that abortion answered your prayer. See if the work of Ba'al answered your prayer. See if the sacrifice of a child to Molech answered your prayer. See if kneeling at the foot of the serpent wrapped around the pole answered your prayer. Did it? Did it bring you life more abundantly? Did it bring you the promise of eternal life with a loving Creator? No.

But you're under the impression that if you fill your apartment with gold statues, other people will think you're rich. If you run around in thousand-dollar suits, other people will think that you've got it made. If you put a trophy wife on your right arm, other people will envy you. If you get on a plane to Jeffrey Epstein's Lolita Island, people will wonder at how great you are at satisfying your lust illegally. And you think that you're going to be able to give license to your sin and that your sin is going to be ignored by he who created you because your bank account is large. Your bank account is going to say nothing to you on your deathbed. Nothing.

You know what your bank account is going to say to you on your deathbed. You're going to find your heirs at your deathbed beating up on each other as to who gets to split up the bank account and could not care one iota about the pain you're in, about the suffering you're in, about the fact that you're preparing to meet your maker and you're seeing the demons of hell swirling around you. And you don't know how to repent, and you're not going to get repentance from your bank account. It's not going to happen. Your bank account is going to be very silent. As Steve Jobs said, you can't pay someone to die for you.

Now recently, the fellow who holds a position that the mainstream media tells us is relevant to being an American, Joe Biden. I'm going to be using the word unvi'ed. I'm not going to be using the term that discusses the snake bite in its needle form. Because we don't want YouTube to go nuts on us here. So, we're going to be using the term unvi'ed. And we're going to be talking about CD, CD, not VD, CD. It's a different disease.

Bless, not Curse

“For unvi’ed: We are looking at a winter of severe illness and death, if you’re unvi’ed,” Biden said.

“For themselves, their family, and the hospital they’ll soon overwhelm.”

- Joseph Biden, December 16, 2021

For unvi’ed: quote,

“For unvi’ed: we’re looking at a winter of severe illness in death, if your unvi’ed, Biden said. For themselves, their family, and the hospital, they’ll soon overwhelm.” -Joseph Biden, December 16, 2021

Well, who knew the Joe Biden was a prophet? Very interesting. He's going to give us this prophecy about what's going to happen to people who are unvi’ed. Those who have not walked into the snake bite. Hmm, what's going to happen? Oh, you're going to have a winter of severe illness and death if you are unvi’ed. And then you're going to overwhelm the hospitals, according to him. Well, that was a quote of his December 16, 2021. We rebuke this prophecy. He is attempting to curse those who have not bowed at the altar of Asclepius. Those that have not bowed at the altar of sorcery and pharmakeia. Those who have not bowed at the altar of the criminal event of all human history, those people he's going to curse. We rebuke that curse. And we say these words are of absolute zero and no effect whatsoever to the children of YAHUAH ELOHIYM. None. They're just passing gas. That's all they are.

Well, now wait a minute. I thought you guys were double, triple snake, even quadruple snake bit. You guys should be completely protected, according to President Biden. The un-vi'ed are going to be the ones in the hospital experiencing death and illness. But in Israel and in Portugal, guess who it is? It isn't the un-vi'ed.

In fact, now take a look at this chart. Now, this chart is just over the top. But this is the chart, look at this chart. This is from John Hopkins University. And it goes through September 5, 2021. And you can see that over here, Israel launched his third dose of the snake bite right here on August 3, 2021. And then Sweden didn't see Sweden didn't swing. Man, we're not going to do that. Why not? Because we're Sweden, we don't give a royal rip. So, we're not going to do it. Whereas Sweden, what's your guy's approach to life? Not much? Don't do anything. That's our approach. I like that. Sometimes that's a good approach. Don't do anything.

But in Israel, we're going to do something; we're going to launch the third dose. And so, what do we get? Let's just climb it right on up out of the stratosphere. Let's just take it right up out of the stratosphere. Well, now I'm going to ask you the question. Does this give you any indication of anything? I mean, if you were a scientist like Dr. Fauci, you were a scientist. Would you look at this and say, Gee, there seems to be a correlation. Would you be able to see that in the chart? Or is this chart just so insignificant that, just a minute here to do a hold on here, let's annotate for a second, I got to annotate that way I can have some fun.

So, when you see this, this distance here? That looks kind of significant. I don't know. I mean, to me, that strikes me as significant. Now, if you had something, where you had this graph here, kind of going like this (He is moving the line), maybe there's no correlation there. Maybe we could see some differences, some statistical differences. Maybe then there's kind of something. But even a brain-dead scientist, like Tony Fauci, cannot miss the disparity between this point and this point. You can't miss it unless you're pretending that it doesn't exist. Unless you're lying about something. Hmm. Yeah.

Did the Biden Administration bomb America with the O___ Variant?

In some regions, O's share of new infections is much higher than 73%. "It's responsible for an estimated 90% of new infections in the New York area, the Southeast, the industrial Midwest and the Pacific Northwest," according to the Associated Press. Cases in New York State, in fact, hit an all-time high on Friday and went even higher today.
<https://deadline.com/2021/12/omicron-now-dominant-u-s-variant-1234899903/>

So, the question becomes, did the Biden administration bomb America with the "O" variant?

Well, here's deadline.com telling us,

In some regions, O's share of new infections is much higher than seventy-three percent. "It's responsible for an estimated ninety percent of new infections in the New York area, the Southeast, the industrial Midwest, and the Pacific Northwest,"

Alright, so what they leave out Arizona?

According to the Associated Press. Cases in New York State, in fact, hit an all-time high on Friday and went even higher today.

<https://deadline.com/2021/12/omicron-now-dominant-u-s-variant-1234899903/>

Wow, that's pretty good for something that just got invented out of the clear blue sky.

O - which continues to appear significantly less dangerous though more transmissible than earlier variants of Covid- has been used as a cover for vaccine failure.

Most new C__d cases in Denmark occur in people who are vi'ed or boosted - and that is true for both O_ and earlier variants. More than 76 percent of non-O C__d infections in Denmark are in vi'ed people, along with about 90 percent of O infections.

Further, only 25 of the 561 people currently hospitalized in Denmark for C__d have the O variant. The Danes do not provide an exact number for patients in intensive care with O, saying only that it is fewer than five.

<https://www.zerohedge.com/covid-19/stunning-covid-data-denmark-not-reason-youve-been-told>

Okay, now, here's a piece that came out of Denmark. That gives us a little bit of information. So it says,

O- which continues to appear significantly less dangerous though more transmissible than earlier variants of CD- has been used as a cover for vaccine failure?

Failure? Hey, are you trying to tell me my needle didn't work? That's what I'm trying to tell you. You guys spent a lot of money, and it failed. It doesn't work. Just like your mask didn't work. Just like your lockdown didn't work. Just like your contact tracing didn't work. Just like your social isolation didn't work. Just like your social distancing didn't work. If it didn't work. Why is this thing still going on? Because it didn't work. If it worked, we wouldn't have this problem. So, what can we conclude after two years, Tony? It didn't work. It didn't work, which means what? You're an idiot. You're wrong. You don't know what you're talking about. And you're wrong, period. Wrong. Wrong solution. That didn't work. So, what's it saying? Denmark,

Most new CD cases in Denmark occur in people who are vi'ed or boosted-and that's true for both "O" and the earlier variants. More than seventy-six of non-O CD infections in Denmark are in vi'ed people.

What seventy-six of new infections are in the double jab?

Along with about ninety percent of "O" infections.

Ninety percent of the "O" infections are in those who are double jab. Hmm, sounds like something didn't work. Sounds like something didn't work.

Further, only 25 of the 561 people currently hospitalized in Denmark for CD have the "O" variant. The Danes do not provide an exact number for patients in intensive care with "O", saying only that it's fewer than five.

<https://www.zerohedge.com.covid-19/stunning-covid-data-Denmark-not-reason-you've-been-told>

We're not going to give you the exact number because we don't have any patients in intensive care with the "O" variant. It's always something else but will for the sake of this discussion because we don't want to get caught by the CDC giving information that's like true. It's fewer than five. Is it fewer than four? It's fewer than four. Fewer than three. Okay, that's fewer than three.

Now, the reason we're going to bless today has to do with this. What these people who have been engaged in, this crime against humanity, don't know is they look at their stock portfolio and they think 2021 was a spectacular year for me. We made billions and billions of dollars, and the stock went up three hundred, eighty-two percent, which is going to allow me to renew my country club membership and get a new set of golf clubs. Of course, my golf game still sucks. But don't let that stop you. In my mind, a new set of golf clubs is going to work. And who knows, I might get invited on that new yacht, that what's his name is just built. That yacht that shouldn't ever see 100-foot wave would capsize it, and we'd all die. But don't let that bother you. And don't let it bother me the fact that as soon as we get out to sea in that day, and everybody seems sick, it still has rats in the bilge. I knew we should have spent more money; I knew we should have spent more money. But hey, with a little bit of luck, I'll be getting a new Tesla self-driving vehicle this year. And I can run around in the country club saying I'm cooler than you because my stock is worth more money than yours. How's that grab you? Yeah, I'm important in my own mind.

Well, let's talk about what the future looks like for you since we know that your money is not going to rescue you. Your god Mammon isn't going to rescue you. Your god Ba'al isn't going to rescue you. Your god Apollo isn't going to rescue you. Your god Baphomet isn't going to rescue you. Your goddess Asclepius isn't going to rescue you. Your money isn't going to rescue you.

What's going to happen? Well, let's see.

Bless, not Curse

Then the pit of torment shall appear, and opposite it shall be the place of rest; and the furnace of She'ol shall be disclosed, and opposite it the paradise of delight 37 Then El Elyon will say to the nations that have been raised from the dead: Look now, and understand whom ye have denied, whom ye have not served, whose commandments ye have despised! 38 Look on this side and on that; here are delight and rest, and there are fire and torments! Thus, he will speak to them on the day of judgment.

- Ezra Reviy'iy (4 Ezra) 7:36-38

EZRA REVIY'IY (4 Ezra) 7:36-38:

“36. Then the pit of torment shall appear, and opposite it shall be the place of rest, and the furnace of She’ol shall be disclosed, and opposite the paradise of delight....”

So, there's two places. We have this furnace of She’ol and the paradise of delight.

“37. Then EL ELYON will say to the nations that have been raised from the dead: Look now, and understand whom ye have denied, whom ye have not served, whose commandment ye have despised!
38. Look on this side, and on that; here are delight and rest, and there are fire and torments. Thus, he will speak to them on the day of Judgment.”

What? You don't like his commandments. You don't like you, the Creator? You don't like he who loves you? You don't like him? You like that money stuff; you like serving the flesh, the flesh, the flesh. And I'll tell you what, you've been serving the flesh for so long now that you're seventy; how is serving the flesh treating you? Just like Mohammed Ali. He was a great boxer until he wasn't. You're serving the flesh was doing fine until it doesn't anymore. Until now, you're just somebody who overeats over at McDonald's.

A day that has no sun or moon or stars, 40 or cloud or thunder or lightning or wind or water or air, or darkness or evening or morning, 41 or summer or spring or heat or winter or frost or cold or hail or rain or dew, 42 or noon or night, or dawn or shining or bright -ness or light, but only the splendor of the glory of El Elyon, by which all shall see what has been determined for them. 43 For it will last for about a week of years. 44 This is my judgment and its prescribed order; and to you alone have I shown these things. 45 I answered and said: O Yahuah Tseva’oth, I said then and I say now: Blessed are those who are alive and guard your commandments!

- Ezra Reviy'iy (4 Ezra) 7:39-45

EZRA REVIYIY (4 Ezra) 7:39-45:

“39. A day that has no sun or moon or stars,
40. or cloud or thunder, lightning or wind or water or air or darkness or evening or morning,
41. or summer or spring or heat or winter or frost or cold or hail or rain, or dew.
42. or noon or night or dawn or shining or brightness or light, but only the splendor of the glory of EL ELYON, by which all shall see what has been determined for them.
43. For it will last about a week of years.

44. This is my judgment and its prescribed order, and to you alone have I shown these things.

45. I answered and said: O YAHUAH TSEVA'OTH, I said then and I say now: Blessed are those who are alive and guard your commandments!"

Halleluyah. This is from 4 Ezra 7:39-45.

Now, let's continue. And let's see what it says, 4 Ezra 7:78-80

Bless, not Curse

78 Now, concerning death, the teaching is: When the decisive decree has gone forth from El Elyon that a man shall die, as the ruach leaves the body to return again to him who gave it, first of all it adores the glory of El Elyon. 79 And if it is one of those who have shown scorn and have not guarded the Way of El Elyon, and who have despised his Torah, and who have hated those who fear Elohiym; 80 such ruachoth shall not enter into habitations, but shall immediately wander about in torments, ever grieving and sad, in seven ways .

- Ezra Reviy'iy (4 Ezra) 7:78-80

Now concerning death,

As Steve Jobs said, you can't pay someone to die for you. Voltaire who said, Oh, there's no such thing as God. It's all a farce. It's all a joke. The night of his death, they could hear him screaming, from blocks away for hours, and hours and hours. Oh, the solution is all fine until you're there.

EZRA REVIY'IY (4 Ezra) 7:78-80:

"78. Now concerning death, the teaching is this. When the decisive decree has gone forth from EL ELYON that a man shall die, as the ruach leaves the body to return again to him who gave it,..."

He said here used to live in the flesh. Oh, life is all about the flesh. No, it isn't. You think that the flesh just sits out here hanging out? Where's the battery that runs the flesh? You there's no battery pack. What is it that keeps you breathing? You think that it's there's some kind of, oh, gee, I don't have to understand that stuff. All I have to do is just serve the flesh. Guess what, the flesh doesn't function except for the ruach, and the ruach doesn't belong to you. It belongs to YAHUAH.

And he placed the ruach alongside your flesh. And it feeds your flesh with the instruction that your heart should beat, that you're that your lungs should inhale. That your mind should think. You are going to live your whole life denying him who placed that ruach up next to you because you want to serve that flesh.

"78. First of all, it adores the glory of EL ELYON.

79. And if it is one of those who have despised his Torah, and who had hated those who fear ELOHIYM;.."

And you know who you are. Come on. You people in the Pentagon that want to purge all the people of faith because you're so afraid that they're not going to go along with your satanic genocidal agenda against your fellow Americans. You're so worried about that. And they may not like your new costume at the transgender festival. Those things are all possible, aren't they over Andrews Air Force Base. No, no, you don't want to be condemned by acts of righteousness. You don't want to be condemned by the moral standards of your forefathers.

So, we need to purge them. You need to kick those people out of the military, Joe. You need to kick them out. We need to get rid of them. They could be a danger to us because they don't like our satanic festivals. They don't like the Baphomet. They don't like what we do in the private chambers when we're sacrificing children. They don't like that. I don't know what these people are thinking, but we don't want them around. We want them out, get for you need to purge them get rid of them.

"80. such ruachoth shall not enter into habitations, but shall immediately wander about in torments, ever grieving and sad in seven ways."

So, you like serving the flesh? Well, here's what it's going to look like when your flesh is done.

Bless, not Curse

81 The first way, because they have scorned the Torah of El Elyon.

82 The second way, because they cannot now make a good repentance that they may live.

83 The third way, they shall see the reward laid up for those who have trusted the covenants of El Elyon.

84 The fourth way, they shall consider the torment laid up for themselves in the last days.

85 The fifth way, they shall see how the habitations of the others are guarded by angels in profound quiet.

86 The sixth way, they shall see how some of them will pass over into torments.

- Ezra Reviv'iy (4 Ezra) 7:81-86

EZRA REVIY'IY (4 Ezra) 7:81-86:

“81. The first way, because they have scorned the Torah of EL ELYON.

82. The second way, because they cannot now make a good repentance that they may live...”

You'll know that you should have repented, and you didn't. And instead, the final decree came out that said your flesh shall die. And once that decree has had, you cannot now make a good repentance that you might live.

“83. The third way, they shall see the reward laid up for those who have trusted the covenants of EL ELYON....”

You will get to see it.

“84. The fourth way, they shall consider the torment laid up from for themselves in the last days....”

You are going to get a chance to look at that

“85. The fifth way, they shall see how the habitations of the others are guarded by angels in profound quiet....”

That's called rest in peace, RIP, not available to you who served the flesh. There is no RIP for those of you who served the flesh and who have ignored the ruach. There is no RIP. doesn't exist for you.

“86. The sixth way, they shall see how some of them will pass over into torments....”

Bless, not Curse

87 The seventh way, which is worse than all the ways that have been mentioned, because they shall utterly waste away in confusion and be consumed with shame and shall wither with fear at seeing the glory of El Elyon before whom they sinned while they were alive, and before whom they are to be judged in the last times.

- Ezra Reviy'iy (4 Ezra) 7:87

So we pray a prayer of blessing on those who would curse us, that they might avoid this destination.

EZRA REVIY'IY (4 Ezra) 7:87:

“87. The seventh way, which is worse than all the ways that have been mentioned, because they shall utterly waste away in confusion and be consumed with shame and shall wither with fear at seeing the glory of EL ELYON before whom they sinned while they were alive, and before whom they are to be judged in the last times.

You will have the opportunity to wither away in confusion, to be consumed with shame, and to wither in fear for all those days remaining between now and the judgment seat.

So, we will pray a prayer of blessing on those who would curse us that they might avoid this destination.

Bless Father, by letting your judgment rest

Bless Father, by showing the wickedness of the sinner to the sinner that they might repent before it's too late!

Bless Father, by letting your will be done.

Bless Father, by letting your judgment rest.

Bless Father by showing the wickedness of the sinner to the sinner that they might repent before it is too late.

And so, it is my friends, that we pray for the repentance of those who are perpetrating the most wicked crime against mankind ever seen in the history of mankind? May their eyes be opened when they go to bed tonight and go, what?

And suddenly see, and suddenly their soul render to them and say to them, you should think before you do this, you should think before you do this. Now that you have done this, you must repent. For if you don't, you have seen what the future holds for you. Nothing for the flesh and nothing but torment for the ruach.

QUESTIONS AND COMMENTS:

KEVIN WILLIAMS: Bless Boris Johnson and let him see his wrong ways, repent, and be baptized in YAHUSHA'S name.

DR. PIDGEON: Amen. A second that Kevin Williams? And so, we continue with these prayers.

Okay, my friends. So, with that, if there are some questions, you guys feel free to to put some questions on the table. I've tried to be as careful as I can during this presentation. I have to tell you that when I was putting this presentation on my heart, that it was not a peaceful presentation, let me tell you, and because the things that that these people need to repent from, are really, really, really serious. And people who have who think that, in their mind, they're immortal until they're not. To bow down and kneel down to the rainbow flag, as Nancy Pelosi has done. To flex and put pressure on the whole country in order to ensure a partial-birth abortion continues in the land, to desecrate, defile, and to otherwise torture the children in this country. They do this and say to themselves; it's okay that I do this because my stock portfolio is increasing. My stock portfolio is increasing; my wealth is increasing. I'm going to be able to buy a nicer car this year; I'm going to be able to buy a boat this year. I'm going to be able to do this; I'm going to be able to do that. And they completely lose touch with what is of the beauty of life. And so, I want to thank you, guys. I want to thank you guys for being here.

A MOTHER RAISED UP: Not by might nor power but by your Ruach Ha'Qodesh O YAHUAH and authority.

DR. PIDGEON: Amein. Amein. Not by might or by power, but it is going to be YAHUAH'S; it's going to be YAHUAH'S hand that's going to act.

LYNN BB: Please teach Druid ancestry and fall of their knowledge.

DR. PIDGEON: Yes, we can talk about that a little bit. I'm going through a book right now called the Ecclesiastical History of the church in Britain. It talks about some of the early teachings of the Druids and what they taught, and some of the losses that happened. Right.

And I want to thank you guys for your comments. Thank you.

JACKIE A: Does the millennial Cephher have Psalms 151-160? What are your thousand on them?

DR. PIDGEON: Well, we actually have Psalms 151 to 155. And some of the Psalms there's, again, we look at some of the sources for the additional Psalms, and we have to be very careful about how we approach it. It took us a long time to even embrace the last five Psalms, but we felt comfortable in that we had two witnesses in publishing those Psalms 151 to 155, 156-160; we do not have those.

“We are praying for you, Dr. Pidgeon.” And thank you, Amy, Yahuah raised up that, I'm thank you for your prayers. And in bringing us back to health. We walked through really a very difficult time, about seventeen days of illness. And I shouldn't say it was a really difficult time. It was a difficult time and, of course, got lonely because we weren't seeing anybody, of course. But it was okay. And you know, we just kind of, I had an opportunity to rest Hey, there's an idea to actually rest, and I know YAH wanted me to rest, and so that happened. And now, of course, our fellowship, this thing has gone through the entire fellowship. And so now our fellowship is, is doing this.

JESSICA KNOCK: Tee Jo asks: Where are we in the seven years or not yet there?

DR. PIDGEON: Well, I'll tell you, the way it stands right now, it looks like we're in the seven years. I mean, it looks like we're in the three and a half years of Revelation 12, with Satan being cast to the earth and making war against the saints. I'm not going to say that it's a seven-year tribulation; we appear to be in that period, though, where Satan has been cast to the earth and has moved against us. And so there could be another three and a half years to follow.

This upcoming 2022 is going to be a year and a half. So, you need to be prepared, be prepared with lots of vitamin D. Plan on keeping an eye on your gardens. And the fellowship is coming together between people between groups. That's very good, lean on one another, pray for one another, stand in the gap for one another. And we're going to be okay, we're all going to be okay, and let's be a light. Let's be a light in the darkness.

SHOSHANA ZEITLER: Dr. P, what did you take today to ruse up with such power!

DR. PIDGEON: I'm just drinking a little apple cinnamon tea, actually. And it's quite good. I think the thing that finally helped us break; we were doing was a little Colloidal Silver. We got into little Colloidal Silver there at the end and help. And again, the friends and family we have, and your guy's prayers, and everything else that came to bear on what happened with us has been just huge.

SHANE STOKES: What fruit does blessing our enemies produce in the believer?

DR. PIDGEON: It does, Shane. It does produce a fruit in in the believer because we pray a blessing on those who persecute us. And we pray a blessing on them. Because, when you think about it, those who persecute us are locked into a chain of hatred, death cult, covenant with death. And all of these things generate their willingness to want to harm us. Whereas if they're blessed, and they're blessed in the Ruach Ha'Qodesh, guess what happens? Their heart changes, and when their heart changes.

First of all, they're rescued from a destiny of eternal damnation. And their presentation towards us changes. And they look and say, I don't know why I'd want to hurt these people. I don't know why I'd want to hurt these people.

JACKIE A: Thoughts, sorry not thousands. Spell check ughhh.

DR. PIDGEON: Okay. I kind of thought it was thoughts you were talking about. All right.

DR. PIDGEON: So, it's Amy. All right, Amy, I've got you. I've got your new alias; I was going to go by a different alias. But I decided to stick with Dr. P.

CHERYL BELL: I hate Esau, I hate Edom...it is up to him to avenge. Praise YAHUAH.

DR. PIDGEON: Yeah, well, Esau, Esu, and Edom, they want to raise the serpent. They want to lift up the serpent, and say the serpent is now going to raise up. When you think about the world they want to create, they want to create this world that is absolutely non-empathetic to human life. Just a digital world with computers making decisions that expect us to act like robots. And they think that somehow this is going to create wealth, or it's going to create an automaton society, or it's going to create a Preservation Society of resources and so forth.

I can tell you that if you look, historically, every Communist Nation when it becomes communist becomes the biggest environmental disasters you can possibly imagine. Because when everybody owns everything, nobody owns anything. And as a result, nobody takes care of the environment; they just don't. The next thing you know, you have nuclear power plants that are just allowed to leak all over everywhere. And who cares? They don't care what the environmental damage that goes on.

So, if they achieve this automaton society, they're talking about achieving with a computer controlling everybody, everybody on the social credit system, and living with the squid games kind of approach, you know, everybody either falls in line, or they kill you, this kind of thing. That is going to result in a non-protected environment and an earth preserved. It's going to result in dead people all over the ground rotting, diseases that are going to be unheard of that they've never even seen before. All the creative genius will be gone. Because these predator elite types, who worship money, really don't have any creativity whatsoever. They're just a bunch of parasites.

And so, when you put the parasites in charge, the parasites are going to mooch off whatever they can until it's gone. And at the end of the day, you're going to end up with just an absolute third-world slob environment. That is going to be full of pollution, full of disease, full of dead people, full of darkness; nobody's going to be able to read or write. There will be no possible recovery to come into the world of enlightenment for probably five hundred years. That's the world they want to go into. That's the world that they're worshipping right now. Because they think that their cell phone is so neat, they think their computer is so neat. And so, this is where the that's where the that's where they're going.

KEVIN WILLIAMS: Is there going to be a financial crash soon?

DR. PIDGEON: The answer to that question is, yeah, there is going to be a financial collapse soon. And in fact, the financial collapse that's coming is going to be of freefall of the American dollar to worthlessness. And they think they're going to replace it with a cryptocurrency. A digital currency that they're going to be able to control, but that's going away too because they're going to be at war with Russia and China here very soon.

All of this stuff that you've seen going on right now is a lot of preliminary stuff of posing, of people who have no authority to govern at all. They're not favored by YAH because they're Satan worshippers, so they're not favored by YAH. So, they're not going to be in office for very long, and their government is going to be completely destroyed. It's going to be destroyed by other powers, who are simply not going to put up with a bunch of pedophiles, hitting them with economic sanctions. And so, you can count on a financial ruin coming in effect.

Let me give you an example. The way it stands right now, you have Russia who has completely terminated all-natural gas coming into Western Europe. Now, this is huge because they don't have reserves in Western Europe. The least prepared, of course, is the United Kingdom. So, you can count on the reserves running out in the next ten days. And then the price of natural gas is going to absolutely go through the ceiling. And the forces that be such as the Biden Administration and other worldwide forces, they're not allowing natural gas to be produced. They want to deprive the world of hydrocarbons so that the world starves to death.

So, they intend to starve Europe and to starve Europe with the idea of killing millions and millions of Europeans. And they're doing this. You are talking about a hyperinflation environment. The Euro is failing, the American dollar is failing, and have no natural gas being available. You're talking about once again; air pollution is going to rear its ugly head, as France switches back to oil burning, electric generation in France, which is going to stink up the country, something bad. You are going to see all of this happening. And that assumes that there is not complete destruction of New York City and Washington DC in a nuclear holocaust. There is a very high chance that that is coming as well, very high chance. Russia has moved into full production of its hypersonic weapons.

CAROL LYNN: Who will start the war first...Russia, China, or us?

DR. PIDGEON: Well, China issued a statement yesterday saying that when the war starts, they're not afraid of it at all, and they intend to fight it through to the last man to the finish. You have to remember that the Chinese can, at any time, drop fifty million troops into a particular environment, fifty million troops. That's a lot of guys.

And the Russians, of course, the Russians have closed down the Arctic Ocean so that the trade route that is of common use in Northern Europe, between Britain and China that runs along the Arctic Ocean, is closed. Russia closed it. They've shut off the natural gas, and they've deployed anti-ballistic missile systems that are really very, very advanced.

The United States is doing everything it can to start the war. And there is a rumor foot right now that the United States is going to use a chemical event like they did in Syria. Where they are going to gas people in eastern Ukraine and then blame it on the Russians and say the Russians are using weapons of mass destruction. In terms of chemical weapons that the Americans have shipped into Ukraine, by the way. They're going to blame the Russians to say that the Russians are using chemical weapons against civilians in Ukraine, and they're going to use that as an excuse to start the war.

The Russians will probably very promptly nuke Kiev. And they're not going to invade Kiev with tanks and the troops at all. They're just going to nuke the leadership. And basically, they're going to tell NATO, you know, stay out, or get nuked; it's going to be a really simple equation. And the United States will say, well, we can use we reserve the right to use nuclear weapons on the Russians. And when they do that, the Russians intent on striking every single American military base, and every NATO base in the world with nuclear weapons, they've already announced that.

And in fact, Sergei Lavrov said that you can expect to become radioactive ash; those were his words, radioactive ash. The chances are very strong that we're going to be facing China in Taiwan. And that we're going to be facing a massive war in Eastern Europe that is going to result in the destruction of Western Europe at a really unprecedented level. Then the arrogance in Brussels, Berlin, and in NATO leadership is going to come to a screeching halt. In the meantime, the leadership in countries like the UK and in France are going to be completely replaced. There's already a no-confidence vote headed in Boris Johnson's way and Emmanuel Macron's way. They are going to be pushed out just as Neville Chamberlain was pushed out at the beginning of World War II.

So, these guys are going to be pushed out of office. And we'll see, we'll see if Charles is going to ascend to the throne or if William is going to ascend to the throne. Or if the House of Windsor even continues in the UK, it's very hard to say what's going to happen because if the war starts with Russia, and Britain is antagonizing Russia, the way Britain currently is, there may be a nuclear weapon used against London. And if that's the case, all things change in Britain, all things change immediately.

YAHUAH'S CHILD, TAMMY T: We should build a biodome.

DR. PIDGEON: Yeah, biodome is a really good idea. It's very interesting because what's happening now is that, actually,

LYNN BB: Nuke Ukraine breadbasket?

DR. PIDGEON: Ukraine is a breadbasket. But you know, having done missionary work in Russia. We did what was used was called the black soil project, in an area of Krasnodar, and across the dark, there's a town called roasted in the Dhanu, which is the city Rostov on the Don River Rohstoffe in the Dondo, is what it's called. that is in the area of Krasnodar, where the black soil is in that area right there in Russia. Extremely fertile and very much a breadbasket. So, Ukraine is not the breadbasket. They think it is. The Ukraine right now is a failed state. And when Kiev is gone, and all of its leadership is dead, and all of the American arms that have been placed in Ukraine have been destroyed, the Russians are not going to move in to take Ukraine.

They are not going to do it; they're just going to shut down all of the gas pipelines. Ukraine will be a total failed state of a nuclear-ruined state. With no leadership, no money, no chance for wealth, the natural gas pipelines terminated. And the Russians are just ignoring it. That's most likely what's going to happen. So, it's not looking good at all.

And so, at any rate, so that's what the that's what the war news looks like. And in the United States, we have a situation going where we have some states which are moving hard; they're calling the un-jabbed domestic terrorists, they're trying to establish concentration camps. They're blaming the current failure of the jabs, as you saw by the studies tonight, on the on the un-jabbed. That isn't the case at all; in fact, the correlation with the science is very, very clear. And it's coming out of Israel, and it's coming out of Portugal, it's coming out of other places that have a huge proliferation rate, what that what the actual factual data is.

For the President to lie to the United States about what the data is, he's not succeeding in lying to the United States; he knows because the information is very prolific right now. What he's doing is he is succeeding in painting himself as a completely out-of-touch liar who is misrepresenting the facts to the American public, as is the propaganda machine that calls itself the mainstream media. As Tucker Carlson said, there are more pedophiles at CNN than if people have died from the "O" variant. And that's an accurate statement. So here we are, we're seeing a very much, very much ungluing of what is happening among this leadership, as this thing comes unglued.

It's going to come unglued this year, and it's going to come unglued even more next winter, in 20 to 23, it's going to be very much ungluing of the social orders. We are going to see the full effects of this complete failure of this health dictatorship that we've been under. And once that happens, at the end of this thing, the pharmaceutical companies will never be trusted again, for any reason whatsoever; they'll probably be banned as a matter of law, as a matter of international law.

They will be criminalized and the needle, the approach that they've used, which by the way is not found in Scripture anywhere, you know, you can look in the Torah all day long, which shows you how to live life in the life abundantly. There is nothing about a needle in there. So, as a consequence, what you are going to see is that whole protocol is going to end up being banned permanently, and probably for a thousand years. All of the profits that have been made by these companies are going to be taken away by prosecutors, and the leadership is probably going to be prosecuted. They are going to be prosecuted in extreme ways.

So, like a Nuremberg kind of prosecution, it won't happen yet, probably will not happen until 2024. But in 2024, any of them that remain that have not repented are most likely going to suffer the same fate as those doctors from the Third Reich in 1947 in Nuremberg.

TODD RUSHTON: Can you speak about harpotzo or rapture?

DR. PIDGEON: The rapture doctrine is a doctrine that we can talk about it if you want. I'm a big believer that, in fact, the language that is used concerning the rapture is language that is concerning the resurrection, and not the rapture, the resurrection, that the dead will rise first. And that will be rising to the White Throne Judgment. So, I don't see this resurrection happening with this idea that's taught in the Christian church. That we're going to escape the tribulation, we're in the tribulation, we're not escaping it. We have the mark of the beast that's upon us. People say, well, that's not the Mark of the Beast.

In Kenya, for instance, today, we learned there's no buying or selling, except that you have the mark. In Austria, there is no buying or selling. And in fact, those who do not have the mark are going to be rounded up and put in concentration camps in Austria and in Germany. So, it's not only you're not going to be able to not buy or sell; you're going to be placed in a concentration camp. So, we pray for those people in Austria; we pray for those people in Germany; we pray for the brothers and sisters there, that they would be made invisible. They would be unseen by their government leaders, and that their government leaders would instead completely fail.

That their governments would fail. That their leadership would fail and that their institutions would entirely fail. That as they come against the just, that YAH will bring a double cup upon them in terms of what's going to happen. And in fact, may all of those people who are in law enforcement, in Austria and Germany who are prepared to enforce these edicts to enslave their brothers and sisters in concentration camps, may you find yourself fighting in Eastern Europe on the Russian front in the very near future.

FRANK N BEANS: Any thoughts on an alien deception. Sightings have increased worldwide. Return of the False Messiah?

DR. PIDGEON: Now the alien deception you know, there's been a lot of discussion, particularly from Steve Quail concerning the coming alien deception, and of course, that is a manipulation that I believe belongs strictly with the RCC, they intend to manipulate that event. Hard to say what's happening; I think that's a machination of the house of Esau or Esau and that they've got a lot of plans. But you know, currently, the Pope is also now defending his physical flesh against the odds decision which is calling him home. And as Jorge Bergoglio faces that decision, you've we've read the passage from 4 Ezra, Jorge.

You need to consider that passage because you're not going to have the opportunity to repent after your flesh has passed. You need to consider it, and you need to consider it now. You need to consider it now. I can tell you as just one human being to another, you need to repent, you need to repent right now, and you need to repent. You should call Cardinal Viganò, and you should call him into the confessional. You should get on your knees, and you should give a complete confession. Not that the Cardinal can absolve you of your sins and give you penance, but you need to confess to a brother in the faith of the things that you have done. You need to confess; you need to confess them now and to seek forgiveness in the mercy of YAHUSHA because the serpent has your name written on his fangs. You should think about this, Jorge, you're running out of time. You're running out of time.

A MOTHER RAISED UP: What company of colloidal silver did you get, Dr. P? Since you already tested it.

DR. PIDGEON: I can't tell where the Colloidal Silver came from. All I can say is that you got to be careful about Colloidal Silver. I've known a couple of people that they like get into it. And I don't know what it is about Colloidal Silver, it's just colloidal silver, but like somebody's like, I'm into this stuff. This stuff is pure health. And the next thing you know, they end up with gray skin. I'm not kidding you. They turn the color of silver. It's like, what race are you again? Silver. I'm Silver. Because their whole skin takes on the complexion of silver, so be careful.

CAROLINE MCGREAL: Can you see the second exodus coming soon, Dr. P?

DR. PIDGEON: I do see the second Exodus. I'll just share this with you, Carolyn. I think that were in exciting times, were really good times. Because the remnant of YAHUAH is called to bless. And the remnant of YAHUAH is called to live. To live as a light. And part of living in that light is to do things like record music with your family members. And to sing of the glory of YAHUAH, and to lift up his name and to enjoy the beauty of around us. Because what is true wealth if it's not being around your loved ones. What is true wealth if it's not enjoying the company of one another. What is true wealth if it's not being able to join in worship of YAHUAH with another human being. And to be in the Ruach Ha'Qodesh. What is true wealth except for that blessing in Ruach Ha'Qodesh in the fellowship of song. These are things that are just me; you can't trade that I don't care, you know, you think, oh, gee, I'm going to be on a yacht doing sixty miles an hour, and I'm going to be really cool sitting out on the front with my suntan. That is nothing; zero means absolutely Zippo compared to being in a room full of twenty or thirty believers and have the Ruach Ha'Qodesh come upon the room.

And everyone in the room knows that the Ruach Ha'Qodesh is present, and you see heaven open up and the light shining down. You are hearing the words of YAH, and people are singing and sharing. There is nothing; there is nothing. There is nothing like that. I don't care how much money you have, or what kind of golf clubs you have, or what kind of chauffeur-driven limo you can pull up in. It's nothing. That means nothing. Nothing compared to the presence of YAH. Nothing, it means nothing. It's nothing.

So, with that, my friends. We are going to wrap up tonight. I want to thank you guys for being with us again here at Ceper Academy. Come and visit the website, Ceper.net. We are introducing the Millennium. Millennium is now our book of official publication. And we are making it available in a large font as an option. You can get the Millennium; the current Millennium you can get it with tabs installed. The gals in Montana do absolutely fabulous work for us in that regard.

We are also working to further develop a newer Lexicon that's coming. And of course, the current book selection is available too. I want to mention Ross Broadstock's Cymroglyphics. It's a great book, great book to read, great book to have on hand. A lot of people love Ha'avoth. It's extraordinary reading in Ha'avoth, it has the DDK, and it has the Gospel according to Nicodemus, which is also called the acts of Pontius Pilot. It has the Epistle of Barnabas. The Apocalypse of Peter. The vision of Paul. The ascension of James.

It's really quite an incredible book and very worthwhile reading if you're looking to supplement your current Ceper. But the Ceper Millennium is now available. And so, we encourage you to go to the website; our blogs are there. Also, go to the website, and you'll see a microphone icon at the top of the page. And that microphone icon will take you to Ceper Radio. And in Ceper Radio, we have the podcast streaming where you can; depending on what your podcast favorite is, you might already have some of the podcast channels we're broadcasting. We have podcasts from the old Crossing Over days. We have podcasts of our recent Saturday Shabbat meetings. So, I encourage you to go there.

Then we have a Telegram icon up, and I think Eileen might be present with us here in the chat here today that the telegram groups are forming, and she will hook you up, get you squared away with the telegram. Then you can find a local group; we have groups forming all over the world now. And people are starting to look to one another in fellowship knowing that as time's coming, when they get to the point where they say you can't come in public anymore. We don't want to see your face. We will say to them, we are blessed among one another, and we will maintain ourselves as light in the darkness.

Halleluyah.

So, with that, let us pray.

JOY TRUJILLO: May Father Creator keep you in all peace and give me courage and strength of heart. Amein Endure!

DR. PIDGEON: Amein. Amein. Joy. And so, I'm going to lift that in our prayer tonight. Same blessing over you brothers. Sisters in the name of YAHUAH TSEVA'OTH. And that we might, in our fellowship, lift up the name of YAHUAH and say, YAHUAH ELOHAI, we are your children. You are YAHUAH our ELOHIYM. The one who loves us. The one who created us. The one who calls us. The one who looks over us. The one who shadows us with his wings, our strong fortress, our mighty tower. His rod and his staff, they comfort and guide and lead and direct, not by strength, not by power, but by the Ruach Ha'Qodesh of YAHUAH ELOHIYM. In the name of YAHUSHA HA'MASHIACH. Amein. Thank you, and good night, my brothers and sisters.
