The image shows a stone tablet with ancient script, likely the Standard of Yashar'el. The text is written in a cuneiform-like script and is arranged in several lines. The tablet is rectangular and appears to be made of a light-colored stone, possibly limestone or gypsum. The background is dark and textured, suggesting an archaeological excavation site.

There is much to discuss when raising the issue of the house of Yashar'el. Prophecy was given by Ya'aqov; designation was given by Mosheh; stones were selected and placed for the priest.

And importantly, standards were raised over their houses.

What were these standards? What do they reveal? Is there a hidden voice of prophecy even in these?

Now the sons of Re'uven the firstborn of Yashar'el, (for he was the firstborn; but forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Yoceph the son of Yashar'el: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. 2 For Yahudah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Yoceph's:)

Divrei Hayamiym Ri'shon (1 Chronicles) 5:1

Let's begin with the last blessings of Ya'aqov which are to be found in the last several chapters of the Ceper Bere'shiyth (the Book of Genesis).

While many of us concentrate on the blessings of the twelve tribes, there is an interesting blessing which precedes the statements of Ya'aqov in regard to his sons.

5 And now your two sons, Ephrayim and Menashsheh, which were born unto you in the land of Mitsrayim before I came unto you into Mitsrayim, are mine; as Re'uen and Shim'on, they shall be mine.

Bere'shiyth (Genesis) 48:5

5 And now your two sons, Ephrayim and Menashsheh, which were born unto you in the land of Mitsrayim before I came unto you into Mitsrayim, are mine; as Re'uen and Shim'on, they shall be mine. 6 And your issue, which you beget after them, shall be yours, and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance. 7 And as for me, when I came from Paddan Aram, Rachel died by me in the land of Kena'an in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephrathah: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrathah; the same is Beyt Lechem. 8 And Yashar'el beheld Yoceph's sons, and said: Who are these? 9 And Yoceph said unto his father: They are my sons, whom Elohiym has given me in this place. And he said: Bring them, I pray you, unto me, and I will bless them.

10 Now the eyes of Yashar'el were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them and embraced them. 11 And Yashar'el said unto El-Yoceph, I had not thought to see your face: and, lo, Elohiym has showed me also your seed. 12 And Yoceph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. 13 And Yoceph took them both, Ephrayim in his right hand toward Yashar'el's left hand, and Menashsheh in his left hand toward Yashar'el's right hand and brought them near unto him. 14 And Yashar'el stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephrayim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Menashsheh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Menashsheh was the firstborn.

15 And he blessed Yoceph, and said, Elohiym, before whom my fathers Avraham and Yitschaq did walk, the Elohiym which fed me all my life long unto this day, 16 The Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Avraham and Yitschaq; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth. 17 And when Yoceph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephrayim, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephrayim's head unto Menashsheh's head. 18 And Yoceph said unto his father: Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put your right hand upon his head. 19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.

There are those who do not believe that there is any record of Ya'aqov (Yashar'el) going into battle with the Emoriym, particularly over the issue of Shechem, when Bere'shiyth records Shechem being in the hands of the Hiviym (Hivites) (Bere'shiyth 34:2). Some commentators allege that Ya'aqov was simply too much a man of peace to ever engage such conduct which would include conquest by sword and by bow.

However, Yashar reveals a different record, and is the supporting text for this claim. No other text in the Westminster canon corroborates Bere'shiyth (Genesis) 48:22.

And in the one hundred and fifth year of the life of Ya`aqov, that is the ninth year of Ya`aqov's dwelling with his children in the land of Kena`an, he came from Paddan Aram. 2 And in those days Ya`aqov journeyed with his children from Chevron, and they went and returned to the city of Shekem, they and all belonging to them, and they dwelt there, for the children of Ya`aqov obtained good and fat pastureland for their cattle in the city of Shekem, the city of Shekem having then been rebuilt, and there were in it about three hundred men and women.

3 And Ya`aqov and his children and all belonging to him dwelt in the part of the field which Ya`aqov had bought from Chamor the father of Shekem, when he came from Paddan Aram before Shim`on and Leviy had smitten the city. 4 And all those kings of the Kena`aniym and Emoriym that surrounded the city of Shekem, heard that the sons of Ya`aqov had again come to Shekem and dwelt there. 5 And they said: Shall the sons of Ya`aqov the Ivriy again come to the city and dwell therein, after that they have smitten its inhabitants and driven them out? Shall they now return and also drive out those who are dwelling in the city or slay them? 6 And all the kings of Kena`an again assembled, and they came together to make war with Ya`aqov and his sons.

Did Ya'aqov strike against these enemies with the bow?

And Ihuriy king of Shiylah came up to assist Eylon, and he approached Ya'aqov, when Ya'aqov drew his bow that was in his hand and with an arrow struck Ihuriy which caused his death.

Yashar (Jasher) 38:1

Only in the Cephher Yashar is the claim in Bere'shiyth (Genesis) 48:22 corroborated.

Did Ya'aqov strike against these enemies with the sword?

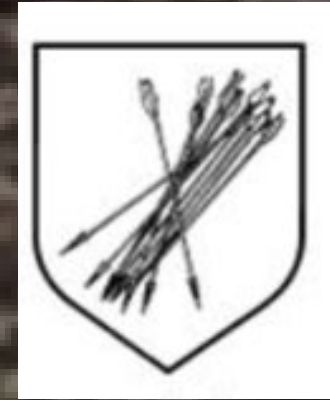

56 And when the sons of Ya'aqov had done smiting the inhabitants of Ga'ash, they walked about the city to strip all the slain and coming in the innermost part of the city and farther on they met three very powerful men, and there was no sword in their hand. 57 And the sons of Ya'aqov came up to the place where they were, and the powerful men ran away, and one of them had taken Zevulun, who he saw was a young lad and of short stature, and with his might dashed him to the ground. 58 And Ya'aqov ran to him with his sword and Ya'aqov smote him below his loins with the sword, and cut him in two, and the body fell upon Zevulun.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of King Yahuyakiyn's captivity, 3 The Word of Yahuah came expressly unto El-Yechezq'el the priest, the son of Buziy, in the land of the Kasdiym by the river Kevar; and the hand of Yahuah was there upon him.

Yekhezq'el (Ezekiel) 1:2-3

4 And I looked, and behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire enfolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the color of amber, out of the midst of the fire. 5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man. 6 And everyone had four faces, and everyone had four wings. 7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the color of burnished brass.

And Tsiyon and Yerushalayim shall be holy.

Yovheliym (Jubilees) 1:28

29 And the angel of the presence who went before the camp of Yashar'el took the tables of the divisions of the years from the time of the creation of the Torah and of the testimony of the weeks of the jubilees, according to the individual years, according to all the number of the jubilees according, to the individual years, from the day of the new creation when the heavens and the earth shall be renewed and all their creation according to the powers of the heaven, and according to all the creation of the earth, until the sanctuary of Yahuah shall be made in Yerushalayim on Mount Tsiyon, and all the luminaries be renewed for healing and for peace and for blessing for all the elect of Yashar'el, and that thus it may be from that day and unto all the days of the earth.

Are not these Seraphiym the angels of the presence marking the sanctity of four groups of the tribes of Yashar'el?

2 For on the first day he created the heavens which are above and the earth and the waters and all the ruachoth which serve before him the angels of the presence, and the angels of sanctification, and the angels of the ruach of fire and the angels of the ruach of the winds, and the angels of the ruach of the clouds, and of darkness, and of snow and of hail and of hoar frost, and the angels of the voices and of the thunder and of the lightning, and the angels of the ruachoth of cold and of heat, and of winter and of spring and of autumn and of summer and of all the ruachoth of his creatures which are in the heavens and on the earth.

19 And all the angels of the presence, and all the angels of sanctification, these two great classes he has bidden us to guard the Shabbath with him in heaven and on earth. 20 And he said unto us: Behold, I will separate unto myself a people from among all the peoples, and these shall guard the Shabbath, and I will sanctify them unto myself as my people and will bless them; as I have sanctified the Shabbath and do sanctify it unto myself, even so will I bless them, and they shall be my people and I will be their Elohiym. 21 And I have chosen the seed of Ya`aqov from amongst all that I have seen, and have written him down as my firstborn son, and have sanctified him unto myself forever and ever; and I will teach them the Shabbath, that they may guard the Shabbath thereon from all work.
